We have chosen to franchise our business which will enable small businesses to grow and expand their international reach.

We are committed to deliver ongoing growth and accelerate market penetration by using a combination of practices from the franchise framework and network marketing in order to be successful. We firmly believe the right concept, on-timely planning and systematic training are the correct tools for the franchise-network marketing model can be a great way to turn your business from local to global, from a cooperative business model to a people-centered business model. In addition, the franchise model offers a variety of possibilities for purchase of goods and services as well as a strong local support.

3. Community

Community matters

The people who work within our network or franchisee business are not only investors in our business idea, they are also vested owners, operator and trusted partner of ours who will keep an eye on our business and will take good care of it. After all, we are all interested in the success of this business endeavor.

We take the concept of e-commerce and trading to the next creative level.

We believe the marketplace should combine art, colors and entertainment in order to 'assemble' an ecosphere of a secure, digital environment: rich, virtually pleasing and cool for all users.

4. Creative approach

5. Increase your customer engagement

DealsInvicta is affiliate for several different businesses which shape the concept of Circle of finance.

In many instances, the relationship business - customer ends when the purchase is finalised and the goods are delivered. Conversely, we reframe this business-customer relationship. In our circular system, products are designed to be used periodically (as regular free updates and constant trainings are provided) and to offer users additional benefits (referral, loyalty, community building programs). This enables the client to use our services continuously.

Thanks to our affiliate business tradeinvicta.com, all DealsInvicta merchants benefit from innovative payment approaches.

The biggest downfall of virtual assets as a mean of payment is the inability to sustain value which prevents them from being widely accepted by online retailers.

There is a niche of merchants in need of a token with stable characteristics and use, specifically designed for e-commerce. Our affiliate tradeinvicta.com is a launch path for Invicta token. Invicta token and the specially tailored unifying conceptual framework, created around Invicta, has the ambition to serve as the good example in the modern virtual assets environment and be the positive impact for the merchants and buyers who have adopted virtual assets as a mean of payment.

Although franchise and network marketing business models we apply will boost the business growth and its rapid expansion, for us only growing as a business and moneymaking are not the equivalent of success. Success is defined by matching one’s values, namely investing in the growth of others. So, if your definition of success matches ours, focus on our shared vision. Let`s achieve our goal together!

“All growth depends upon activity. There is no development physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work.” Wise words by Calvin Coolidge.
